JERMYN.

The following law has recently been passed providing a method of procedure for violations of law and borough ordinances, and for the collections of the fines and penalties imposed for said violations:

Section 1.-Be it enacted, etc., that the policemen and constables of the several , boroughs of this common wealth, in addition to the powers already conferred upon them, shall and may, without warrant and upon view, arrest and commit for hearing any and all persons guilty of a breach of the peace, vagrancy, riotous or disorderly onduct, or drunkenness, or may be engaged in the commission of any un-lawful act, tending to imperil the peronal security or endanger the property of the citizens, or violating any ordinances of said violation of which a fine or penalty is imposed.

Any person or persons arrested, with or without warrant, shall be entitled to a trial and to give bail for his or her appearance, according to the practice in summary convictions in criminal cases.

Section 3.-Any person arrested for the violation of a borough ordinance may be committed to the borough lockup pending a hearing or trial, but n case there is no suitable lockup or place in which to detain prisoners the person arrested may be committed to the county jail. Upon judgment against any person by summary conviction, or by proceedings by summons on default of payment of fines of penalty imposed by said judgment and the costs, the defendant may be sentenced and committed to the porough lockup for a period not exceeding five days, or to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days. Provided, however, that no fine or penalty shall exceed $100, for any single violation of any ordinance, and provided further that in case the defendant has goods or property out of which said judgment and costs can be collected by execution copias or other process, the plaintiff in the action may elect to proceed to collect the said judgment for fine or penalty and costs by said proceedings. The children's servece at the Methodist church on Sunday morning was the most pleasant one, both for the children and older people, that has been spent in years. The floral designs and decorations were exquisite. The service was termed "The Young People's Republic." In the evening the service was in charge of the Epworth league, and the following programme was rendered: "Early Life of John Wesley," by Mrs. W. S. Badger; "Wesley in Georgia," Robert Hall; "Wesley's Influence on the Dicipline of the Methodist Church," W. Seymore; "Origin of the Holy Club," W. T. Osborne; "Wesley at Oxford," Naboth Osborne. Between the reading of the different papers, Mr. Davis, a member of Evangelist Moody's quartette, sang two solos, and Mr. John Werne, of Peck-ville, also sang a solo. Yesterday afternoon Mr. James Toman, a miner employed in the Dela-ware and Hudson colliery, was seriously injured. He was barring down buck and more fell than he expected would, and felled him to the ground. He received a bad cut on the head, and was badly injured about the back and side. Although a serious injury it is not thought to be fatal.

Mr. Alfred Chapman of Peckville was arrested yesterday morning by Constable Woodmancee for soliciting orlers for a stereopticon firm. Mr. Chan man is a student at Wyoming seminary, and during vacation works to pay for the following year's tuition. He did not intend to break any law, but was unaware of the ordinance recently passed. He was arrested under ction 2, borough ordinance reavding: "All venders, hawkers, peddlers, so-licitors and all other dealers not named n this section shall pay a license fee of ten dollars persmnum.
